

I have attended the Startalk Chinese Immersion Summer Day Camp for ten days this summer. It was a great learning experience and also a lot of fun. Each day for about seven and a half hours, we participated in a wide range of activities that all involved different elements of Chinese culture. We learned new words, phrases, and sentence patterns in Chinese and practiced them by performing skits in front of the class. Our teacher, Chen Lao Shi (Ms. Chen) and our peer mentor, Hailun Zheng, helped us to learn Chinese. Our teacher spoke to us only in Chinese, so that we could improve our listening comprehension skills. Our peer mentor helped us to understand the material by explaining things we did not know and answering our questions. They were both excellent at teaching and I would not have learned as much as I did if I had not had them. We also used the Linguafolio computer program to practice applying what we have learned. We also sang many Chinese songs, like "Lao Shu Ai Da Mi," "Peng You," and the Chinese version of "Head, Shoulders, Knees, and Toes." Singing in Chinese was fun and helped us to practice our language skills.

We also participated in a variety of Chinese cultural activities. These included Chinese calligraphy, Chinese painting, making bracelets with Chinese knotting, dancing with Chinese fans, Chinese paper-cutting, and participating in a Chinese tea ceremony. We also ate many different Chinese foods for lunch and snacks. These cultural activities helped to increase our appreciation of Chinese culture. I learned that Chinese culture is different from American culture, but there are also many similarities. For example, Chinese and American cultures both include art and music. I think that Chinese culture is very beautiful and exciting.

became good friends. Our class was very close and we always had fun learning together and practicing our Chinese together. We came together as a community to help each other and learn from each other. It was a lot of fun to experience this camp with so many great people. Through the Startalk Chinese Immersion Summer Day Camp, I improved my Chinese and increased my appreciation of Chinese culture, while getting to know some other great students who love Chinese culture as much as I do.

On the second to last day of camp, we took a field trip to a wonderful Chinese restaurant and ate lunch. We ordered our food in Chinese, and this was a meaningful application of what we learned. We then went to an Asian supermarket and used Chinese to buy a wide variety of delicious Chinese snacks. The whole field trip was a lot of fun and very educational.

This camp was a great experience because in addition to learning a lot, we all
