

HEY!
THE 2020 ELECTION IS COMING.
WE SHOULD REALLY NOT SCREW THIS ONE UP.

GOOGLE ANDREW YANG.

HE IS AN AWESOME NEW DEMOCRAT RUNNING FOR PRESIDENT.

楊安澤 您的行動讓我們感動

First I want to say thank you to everyone who is here today, and I want to talk a little about Andrew Yang! I first met Andrew over 5 years ago. It was just as Venture for America was beginning to take shape from an idea to actual students imagining their futures around it. I was one of those students. As we talked about the fellowship, I began to understand the vision Andrew had for the program, and I knew even back then that it was more than just placing college students at startups in cities that are struggle to attract talent like my hometown Detroit and my current city Cleveland.

Andrew's vision was about shedding light on pathways that had always existed but were hidden and often less travelled. Venture for America represents one program trying to solve three difficult problems. The problem of: * smart Asian-Americans who are U.S. citizens should fully exercise their right and privilege to vote in elections. It is our duty to participate in our government by registering to vote and voting in elections. Although the General Election has passed, we still have the duty to do our best to be knowledgeable about the issues and positions of future candidates and support the ones that align best with our values. This may take some time but it's never too early to start.

need people who aren't afraid to take them on. Andrew is one of them. He doesn't have the typical resume you might expect for someone running for president (neither does our current president for that matter). But he has the know how of seeking out solutions, building cooperation, and the right ideas about how to approach some of the hardest problems the US is facing and will face.

I spend a lot of time thinking about the type of country I want to live in, and I realized that my hope are more "normal" than not. I want a country that provides education and opportunity to everyone, that makes sure that people are treated fairly, and protects people who need it. These are not radical or partisan ideas. But what is radical,

編後語:

自 2016 年美國總統競選後，華人參政議政的熱情一天比一天高漲，在這天時地利對上號的時候，一位企業家楊安澤先生脫穎而出。

11 月 13 日晚上，楊安澤在克利夫蘭圖書館為他 2020 年的總統競選造勢。楊安澤是民主黨的華裔代表，他多次來克利夫蘭看 NBA 詹姆士的籃球，今晚他第一次來克利夫蘭為 2020 年總統競選宣傳。這位候選人是有史以來第一位華裔的總統競選人，他為華人在政治舞臺參政寫下了歷史。

年大學學歷。而與卡車司機命運相類似的還有大批的零售業工人、呼叫中心服務人員、快餐店店員，甚至保險公司和會計師事務所也不能幸免于難。如果他們都失去工作，美國社會將難以穩定。

出于對技術變革將給美國社會帶來巨大影響的憂慮，楊安澤選擇了“人性至上”這一不常見的競選口號，也令他進一步提出了“自由紅利”這一受到爭議的想法。楊安澤提出的“全民基本收入”

(Universal Basic Income) 或者又稱“自由紅利”，具體措施是給所有 18-64 歲的美國人每人每月發放 1000 美金的基本生活費，沒有任何附加條件，以保證他們的基本生活穩定。

而對於這一筆巨額費用的來源，楊安澤認為，既然企業從自動化和人工智能的科技發展中獲利頗豐，導致大批美國人失業，那麼它們就有義務

2020 年美國總統候選人楊安澤 - “人性至上”巡迴演講 - 克利夫蘭

對於大部分美國人來說，楊安澤(Andrew Yang)是一個陌生的名字。去年年底，這位 43 歲的美國華裔企業家向聯邦選舉委員會(FEC)提交了書面申請。今年 1 月，他正式宣佈有意代表民主黨參加美國 2020 年總統大選。這位比美國首位非裔總統奧巴馬宣佈參選總統時的年紀還要小 3 歲的紐約企業家，是 50 年來首位參加競選美國總統的華裔。

2018 年 11 月 13 日，楊安澤在克利夫蘭公共圖書館 Garden View Room，向應邀前來的各族選民，做了題為“人性至上”(Humanity First)的演講，講述自己競選理念。

“我仔細觀察了川普當選前後的整個過程，如果你看一下選民的數據，就會發現如果一個地區製造業的機器人和自動化集中程度越高，該地區對川普的投票就越多。”楊安澤說“我們在密歇根州，俄亥俄州，賓夕法尼亞州和威斯康星州實現了 400 萬個製造業崗位的自動化，而正是這些重要的搖擺州的選票將川普送進了白宮。”

在楊安澤看來，更大的變革即將到來。在美國中西部失去 400 萬個製造業的工作機會後，下一個受到影響的將是卡車司機——自動駕駛車輛的普及會使上百萬卡車司機失去工作，而他們有 94%是男性，平均只有高中或一

多繳稅，比如可以用 10%的增值稅(Value Added Tax)來承擔這部分費用。

楊安澤在演講之後，回答觀眾提問，主要是圍繞“自由紅利”，他一一解釋。最後，觀眾們意猶未盡，繼續留在現場，排隊與他交談，合影。

It was very pleasure to meet with the intelligent and ambitious 2020 Presidential Candidate Andrew Yang, who is the first Asian-American Democrat to run for president in the US. If your action inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a great leader. "Nothing is impossible, the word itself says, 'You're possible!'" graduates feeling that opportunities are only in New York or San Francisco in fields like finance or tech

- * startups outside of the valley feeling ignored and unable to attract top talent
- * cities that don't necessarily have a readily available startup environments or strategies for attracting and retaining talent.

Those were huge meaty problems in 2012. But Andrew took them on. Venture for American continues to make strides in those areas. I am standing up here, because I believe our country is currently facing huge meaty problems, and we is the thought that they are achievable and in our lifetime. The truth is there are things that work and things that don't, we just need a leader who is willing to look at reality and choose the policies that leave us better off. Those policies are not unknown, there are solutions to issues gun violence, public transportation, education, and health care. We need to be brave, we need to try things that we haven't in the past. We need to embrace innovation and FACT and we need a leader who will do the same. I believe that Andrew can do that and that is why I am supporting him in his run for President.
