

參加克利夫蘭黎巴嫩社團 CAMEO 節日活動

12 月 11 日克利夫蘭黎巴嫩社團 CAMEO 組織年度節日活動，黃唯和我被協會主席 Preie 邀請參加了活動，CAMEO 協會在全美也是一個很有影響的協會，該協會與美國政界和企業界有著緊密結合，黃唯多年來一直支持這個協會。

那天我有幸送黃唯回家，我們聊了很多，讓我真正的明白，一個被人稱著名律師的人，她的內心有多麼

的强大，她告訴我，她從來不想別人怎麼想她說她，她只想她自己怎麼看自己，她說：自己是一個很平凡的人，想做一點有意義的事情。

我和黃唯認識 20 多年，她的身上最優秀的地方是她總是那麼謙虛，還有她有一位可以策劃未來的母親和幾位團結有佳的姐妹

兄弟，有句話說得好，和氣生財，就是講黃唯的一家人。黃唯大律師家裏保持一個傳統，每周三家人必須在一起吃飯聊天，那天送她回家，她的弟弟在廚房里忙，很和睦很和諧。（浦瑛）

黃唯律師樓舉辦新年慶祝活動

今年克利夫蘭的大律師黃唯在 12 月 7 日邀請社會各界人士，她的親朋好友和新老顧客來參加公司的慶祝活動，今年來了 5 百多位嘉賓，黃唯站在那裡與賓客問候祝福 4 個小時，還有豐富的佳餚、酒和茶點。大家提前感受到節日的喜慶。

今年與往年一樣，整個黃唯律師樓賓客

如雲，所有律師、工作人員和客人融合在一起，輕鬆交談，大家都沉浸在節日前的喜慶氣氛中。黃唯是一位成功的律師，有一支和諧的團隊，她表示歡迎所有來參加活動的嘉賓，每年黃唯她都會寫一封熱情洋溢的信回報和問候她所有的朋友。（浦瑛）

Dear Colleagues and Friends: Happy Holidays!

2019 has proven to be one of the most difficult years in my four decades of immigration law practice. It seemed like there was a new announcement coming every week from the current administration or Attorney General. It has become tougher for those fleeing persecution to apply for and gain asylum; there have been attempts to prevent low-income immigrants from becoming permanent residents; the fight for DACA protection for "Dreamers" has arrived at the Supreme Court. That said, I accept the challenge, and I am more determined than ever to work with the best talents we can find to help our clients.

Across the globe, my birthplace Hong Kong is facing one of the worst crises since I was born. I traveled to the city last month to see what was happening for myself. I visited my grade school St. Paul's Convent School and the places I have lived before coming to America. Despite recent events, Hong Kong still lives up to its name as the "Pearl of the Orient".

Fortunately, 2019 has also been a time of joy for me. At the age of 69, I became a grandmother. My son Steven and his wife Joanna gave birth this week to their daughter, Cameron. They named her after my late husband, Kam. I am so proud of them. All three are doing very well. Cameron is such a beautiful baby, with big eyes and cheeks, and a full head of silky, black hair.

Our law firm continues to thrive and grow. I have invited several of our attorneys to become partners in the firm. Our combined experience, not just in years, but also knowledge and interpretation of the law, current events analytics, and consumer orientation, gives us an edge over other firms in the immigration arena. Instead of slowing down, I still travel at least three days per week to our different offices, including Nashville, New York, Cleveland, Atlanta, Chicago, and Columbus.

Somehow, I find the time to swim, to read, and to play with my dog Theo. I am reading a few books about Hong Kong: "The Battle for Hong Kong 1941 - 1945" and "The Piano Teacher." Both provide fascinating views into the history of the city.

My siblings are all healthy and doing well. We continue our Wednesday evening family dinner tradition. Rose's daughter is pregnant and is expecting in December. We are so excited to welcome another family member!

While reading about history and welcoming the new generation of our family into the world, I remember marriage, births and passings, wins and losses, and all the trials and tribulations along the journey of my life. I miss my husband Kam and my parents at times like this. I wish they were still here so I can talk to them about these changes in the world.

I am so blessed and grateful that I have the help and support from good friends and colleagues, through my years of striving to become who I am, from a young, sheltered Catholic student coming to America in 1969 to the lawyer I am today.

Happy holidays to all my friends and family.
