

Bring Lady to USA K1 Fiancee Visas

There are generally two categories of visas: immigration visas and non immigration visas. Visas are coded by a system of letters from A-V. With very few exceptions most women from the former Soviet Union, Latin America, China, etc. are only eligible to apply for non immigration visas. Examples of non immigration visas are tourist visas, student visas, and fiancee visas (K1 Visas).

For most couples, fiance visas (K 1 Visas) are best. If properly applied for and processed fiancee visas (K1 Visas) have the highest success rate; near 100% for eligible ladies. Fiance K 1 visas are also known as Marriage Visas.

Tourist visa applications generally have a very low success rate. Tourist visas are possible if the lady can show that she has sufficient ties to return to her country, such as a child not traveling with her, substantial assets, prior experience traveling to first world countries, a good job, and money in a bank. Rejection rates exceed 95%.

Student visas have a higher success rate than tourist visas but have a must lower success rate than fiancee visas (K1 Visas). In addition, the student visa usually takes much longer because the lady must take an English test in her home country (TOEFL Test) and then apply for and gain admission to a U.S. university prior to applying for a student visa. She must also be able to prove that she has sufficient financial resources to pay for one year of tuition, fees, room & board, and all other related expenses at the time of the interview at the U.S. Embassy. Without proof of financial resources she will be denied even if all the above criteria are met. She has no better than a 50/50 chance of success in any case.

In short, fiance visas (K 1 Visas) provide the best combination of high success rate, short processing time, and simplicity.

What are the legal requirements for fiancee visas (K1 Visas)?

* You must be a U.S. Citizen. (If not, you must marry the lady overseas and bring her into the U.S. as your wife. This is a very slow process.)

* Both you and your fiancee must be legally able to marry.

* You must have actually met your fiance in the past two years, and can demonstrate the existence of a serious relationship between you. Photos of you and the lady together are required.

* You must demonstrate genuine intentions to marry your fiancee after she arrives in the U.S.

Divided Justice? The New Supreme Court and Abortion Law Professors Debate at The City Club of Cleveland

CLEVELAND, OH—David Forte, professor at Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, and Jessie Hill, professor at Case Western Reserve University School of Law, will debate the impact that the composition of the new Supreme Court will have on the legal future of abortion in this century at noon on Wednesday, March 1, 2006, at The City Club of Cleveland.

Abortion has come to center stage in the wake of the new Supreme Court appointments. President George W. Bush's choices for the Supreme Court, Chief Justice John Roberts and Justice Samuel Alito, have created a Supreme Court with a majority of conservative justices.

A major issue to come to the forefront with this new composition of the high court is the future of abortion and Roe v. Wade, a landmark U.S. Supreme Court case that is one of the most controversial decisions in the Court's history. Roe v. Wade has prompted a decades-long debate on the right to terminate pregnancies, the role of the Supreme Court in constitutional adjudication, and the role of religious views in the political sphere.

Forte served as chief counsel to the U.S. Delegation to the United Nations (1985-86) and has been a Bradley Resident Scholar at the Heritage Foundation. He has written and lectured on international law, comparative law, constitutional law, Islamic Law and jurisprudence.

Hill practiced First Amendment and civil rights law with a Cleveland firm and worked at the Reproductive Freedom Project of the national ACLU office. Her teaching focuses on constitutional law, federal civil procedure, reproductive rights, and law and religion.

Established in 1912 to encourage new ideas and a free exchange of thought, The City Club of Cleveland is the oldest continuous free speech forum in the country, renowned for its tradition of debate and discussion. The City Club's mission is to inform, educate and inspire citizens by presenting significant ideas and providing opportunities for dialogue in a collegial setting.

汽車保險知識問答

什么是租車保險, 這和到外面租車有何關聯嗎? 為何每次租車我會被問要不要保險我真的需要買嗎?

汽車保險里的租車保險, 是在交通意外發生以後, 保障自己的車在修期間有租車的好處。一般會從$30-$50/天不等, 最高會用 20-30 天不等。而自己外出 travel 去租車公司租車, 和以上講的就不同了。你開租來的車就和開你自己保險的車一模一樣。所以如果你自己的車是全保的話, 你最多會負責就是自負 Deductible 了。租車行還提供自付保險。一般大約 $10/天。這樣你就不用擔心任何意外了。但如果自己的車是半保的話, 那就需要買貴一點的保險了, 大約 $20/天 或更多。
