The great events planned for 2007

Guy Bovet, Sunday, Jan. 7, 2:30 p.m., Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

The Swiss Guy Bovet has become one of the most respected organists of our times. He is equally at home in any kind of repertoire, from the earliest to the most recent and combines scholarship, musicianship and originality with a constant curiosity and a delightful sense of humor. He serves on the juries of the greatest organ competitions such as Geneva, Calgary, Dallas, Tokyo, and St. Albans, and has designed and advised for many new organs in Europe, the United States, and Japan. Free advance ticket reservations available.

In Concert with members of the Silk Road Ensemble, Wednesday, Jan. 17, 7:30 p.m., Reinberger Chamber Hall of Severance Hall

Members of Yo-Yo Ma's Silk Road Ensemble, violinists Colin Jacobsen and Johnny Gandelsman, violist Nicholas Cords and cellist Eric Jacobsen, ney (reed flute) soloist Siamak Jahan giri and kamancheh (spiked fiddle) virtuoso Kayhan Kalhor perform a stunningly beautiful evening of music ranging from Debussy to Alizadeh and Komitas to Kalhor. Mr. Ma's Silk Road Ensemble is a cross-cultural musical group that has released two CDs on the Sony Classical label and has performed for audiences worldwide. Single tickets $34, CMA members $29.

Artemis String Quartet, Friday, Feb. 9, 7:30 p.m., Plymouth Church of Shaker Heights

Top awards in the German ARD Music Competition and in the prestigious Premio Borciani heralded the Quartet's international breakthrough. Today the Artemis Quartet (Virgin Classics/EMI) is already one of the top ensembles of its kind. The Artemis Quartet was the first ever quartet to be awarded the prestigious Music Prize of the Association of German Critics in 2001. Single tickets $29, CMA members $27.

Eroica Trio, Friday, Feb. 16, 7:30 p.m., Plymouth Church of Shaker Heights

The most sought-after trio in the world, the Grammy-nominated Eroica Trio thrills audiences with their flawless technical virtuosity, irresistible enthusiasm and sensual elegance. Whether playing the great standards of the piano trio repertoire or daring contemporary works, the three young women who make up this celebrated ensemble electrify the concert stage with their performances of depth and precision. The trio has released six critically-lauded recordings for An gel/EMI Classics Records, garnering multiple Grammy nominations. Single tickets $29, CMA members $27.
