

THE WHITE HOUSE INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

It is an incredible honor for me to be the leader of such a strong team, on behalf of the American people – a team of men and women who could be doing something else, but have decided, I want to serve the greatest land on the face of the Earth.
– President George W. Bush

We are looking for those who would like to serve something greater than themselves. A White House Internship is an opportunity for current students and recent graduates to experience everyday life at the White House while working with high-level officials on a variety of essential tasks and projects. Strong applicants should exhibit:

- ☆ Sound academic credentials
- ☆ A demonstrated interest in public service
- ☆ Solid written and verbal communication skills
- ☆ A history of community involvement
- ☆ Strong character and leadership skills

Beyond experiencing the day-to-day operations of the White House, interns participate in a speaker series, tours, community service projects, and various White House events. Past speakers and events include:

- ☆ President Bush
- ☆ Press Secretary
- ☆ Chief of Staff
- ☆ Senior Advisor to the President
- ☆ Assistant to the President for Speechwriting

- ☆ A Visit to the Vice President's Residence
- ☆ Marine One Arrival or Departure
- ☆ Photo Opportunity with the President
- ☆ Community Service Volunteer Project
- ☆ East and West Wing Tours

Property Tax Levy Meetings –Cleveland Public Library

Cleveland Public Library's 5.8 mill five-year property tax levy, approved by Cleveland voters on May 6, 2003, expires December 31, 2008. This 5.8 mill property tax levy provides 52% of Cleveland Public Library's operating funds. The Library has held Three Town Hall Meetings annually since 2004 to provide a progress report to Cleveland residents on the status of Cleveland Public Library regarding five library service initiatives for which they voted:

- Increased Hours in Neighborhood Branches including Saturdays
- More Computers and Computer Training
- More Services for Seniors
- More Services for Children and Young Adults
- More Services for New Americans

Community Meetings that are free and open to the public are scheduled as follows to give a progress report on the status of Cleveland Public Library and to discuss a proposed tax levy request: Monday, September 10, 7:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m., Harvard-Lee Branch, 16918 Harvard Avenue, (216) 623-6990, Tuesday, September 11, 7:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m., Brooklyn Branch, 3706 Pearl Road, (216) 623-6920, Wednesday, September 12, 12:00 Noon – 1:00 p.m., Main Library--Louis Stokes Wing (Room 218), 325 Superior Avenue, (216) 623-2955, Thursday, September 13, 7:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m., Union Branch, 3463 East 93rd Street, (216) 623-7088.

Andrew A. Venable, Jr. CPL Director, will recommend to the Library Board of Trustees on September 20 that they approve placing a 5.8 mill property tax levy on the March 4, 2008 Primary Ballot, a replacement of the same 5.8 mill five-year property tax levy that approved in 2003. For more information, call (216) 623-2869.
